EU funding periods: recent and future projects

Year II of Creative Europe funding is over, with meetings, workshops, information sessions, and the ERIH annual conference at Porto as significant milestones. Other important achievements were the successful implementation of the new ERIH website and the brochure „European Industrial Heritage: The International Story“.

As a new instrument to gain valid data about the economic impact of industrial heritage in Europe, ERIH is developing an online survey, the Industrial Heritage Barometer. We will keep you informed about progress and how you can participate.

We are now in the final year of the current three year funding period which started on 01.10.2016 and ends on 30.09.2017. It falls within preparations for the European Year of Cultural Heritage 2018.

During the funding period 2017-2020 Creative Europe will continue its programme to support European networks. Again, ERIH applied for funding, focusing on further strengthening the status of ERIH members. A final decision will not be released before July 2017. The highlights of ERIH's application are as follows:

- Site Twinning: bilateral co-operation between thematically related ERIH sites, e.g. by the exchange of staff
- Design and implementation of an exhibition on European industrial heritage in the 'portal of industrial heritage' at the ERIH anchor point and World Heritage Site Zollverein Coal Mine, Essen
- Extension of databases on the ERIH website
- Continuous exchange by means of workshops and meetings on a regional and national level and at ERIH annual conferences.

Online: XTRA and new entries to the industrial history of European countries

The ERIH website has an exciting new section: XTRA: Company Museums and Factory Tours. Just click 'I want to go there' and check the menu opening under 'More to discover'. XTRA lists all ERIH sites that belong to a company that is still operating or which combine a visit with a factory tour. The list ranges from the World Heritage Fagus Factory in rural Lower Saxony to the Clark's company shoe museum in the small Somerset market town of Street. Thus, ERIH connects disused industrial facilities with modern industries and shows that industrial heritage not only refers to the past but also includes the industrial world of today and tomorrow.

EUROPÄISCHE THEMENROUTE | XTRA: FIRMENMUSEEN UND WERKSBSICHTIGUNGEN

In dieser Rubrik sind alle Standorte unserer Datenbank aufgelistet, die zu einem bis heute aktiven Unternehmen gehören bzw deren Besuch eine Werksbesichtigung miteinschließt – vom Welterbe Fagus-Werk im niedersächsischen Alfeld an der Leine t zum Schuhmuseum der Firma Clarks in der kleinen Marktstadt ... mehr

A second XTRA feature lists all UNESCO World Heritage Sites within the ERIH network. The list includes sites across Europe, from Spain to Finland. The corresponding map makes the geographical allocation easy to view and shows particular concentrations in the Benelux region and in the UK.

EUROPÄISCHE THEMENROUTE | XTRA: UNESCO WELTERBESTÄTTEN

Das industriegulturelle Erbe Europas ist auf der UNESCO-Liste mit 39 Welterbestätten vertreten. Hierbei handelt es sich sowohl um Einzelstandorte (wie die Völklinger Hütte in Völklingen) als auch um eine Serie von Standorten (wie die 4 bedeutendsten Bergbaustandorte in der Wallonie/B) oder um von der ... Another important innovation of the ERIH website is its extension to include seven additional country profiles that describe the industrial history of Austria, Czech Republic, Denmark, Italy, Poland, Sweden, and Turkey, which has almost doubled the size of this section of the website. It provides clear information for website visitors and ERIH members who are looking for a quick overview of the industrial development of a certain country. At the same time ERIH fulfils its mandate to compose a broad picture out of each site's historic legacy as part of a common European identity.

Dates of Industrial Heritage Events on the ERIH Website

A useful new website feature - , a handy schedule of dates is now available in the 'What is new?' section on the ERIH website. It offers an overview of all days (including? nights or weeks) of industrial heritage in 2017. So far, we have only listed events in Germany and Poland but hopefully that is going to change. ERIH activities relating to the European Year of Cultural Heritage 2018

On 9th February the European Parliament reached a provisional agreement on the decision establishing 2018 the European Year of Cultural Heritage.

The main objectives of this European Year are:

- to promote cultural diversity, intercultural dialogue and social cohesion;
- to highlight the economic contribution of cultural heritage to the cultural and creative sectors, including small and medium-sized enterprises, and to local and regional development
- to emphasise the role of cultural heritage in EU external relations, including conflict prevention, post-conflict reconciliation and rebuilding destroyed cultural heritage

The European Year will be funded through the redeployment of budgetary resources from existing EU programmes and will have a dedicated financial envelope of EUR 8 million, plus additional national funds.

Preparations for the European Year of Cultural Heritage 2018 are in full swing.

The Industrial Hour

ERIH is currently working on a concept for an activity that will take place concurrently across Europe.. At a certain date and time all machines at ERIH Anchor Points (and if possible other sites) will be switched on. Currently the concept is being developed. We will keep you informed about progress and how you can participate.

Sharing Heritage

On 9th February the German National Committee for Monument Protection organised a meeting in Berlin of different European networks, based in Germany, to discuss project ideas and develop common project applications. Information about the activities in Germany, can be found here:

Within the framework of the European Heritage Alliance 3.0, a meeting was held in Leipzig in November led by Europa Nostra and attended by representatives of 40 European cultural networks and associations. Further meetings are planned.

The European Commission invites 30 representatives to join a European level working group. The group is called “Voices of Culture” and will be responsible for coordinating the European activities. ERIH has applied to participate.

ERIH Board Meetings

The ERIH Board met during the ERIH Conference in Porto and in January in Duesseldorf.

Besides decisions about acceptance of new members, different papers were discussed and decided, which will help to improve the structure the network.

The following documents are currently being finalised:

- Agreement for National Representatives (What are their tasks? What is their function in the ERIH network? How can communication between representatives and the Board be organised?)
- Contract for Anchor Points (rights and duties), which new Anchor Points will sign when joining the network. Existing Anchor Points will receive the paper for information but do not have to sign it.
- Benefits of ERIH membership
We frequently receive enquiries about the benefits of ERIH membership and the differences between the membership categories. We are currently putting this information together in a brief paper.

All documents will be sent out by the ERIH secretariat and will be available on the website in the download section after their final approval.
